1:1 Paul and Timothy, servants of Christ Jesus, To all the saints in Christ Jesus at Philippi, together with the overseers and deacons:

1:2 Grace and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

1:3 I thank my God every time I remember you.

1:4 In all my prayers for all of you, I always pray with joy

1:5 because of your partnership in the gospel from the first day until now,

1:6 being confident of this, that he who began a good work in you will carry it on to completion until the day of Christ Jesus.

1:7 It is right for me to feel this way about all of you, since I have you in my heart. For whether I am in chains or defending and confirming the gospel, all of you share in God's grace with me.

1:8 God can testify how I long for all of you with the affection of Christ Jesus.

1:9 And this is my prayer: that your love may abound more and more in knowledge and depth of insight,

1:10 so that you may be able to discern what is best and may be pure and blameless until the day of Christ,

1:11 filled with the fruit of righteousness that comes through Jesus Christ—to the glory and praise of God.

1:12 Now I want you to know, brothers, that what has happened to me has really served to advance the gospel.

1:13 As a result, it has become clear throughout the whole palace guard and to everyone else that I am in chains for Christ.

1:14 Because of my chains, most of the brothers in the Lord have been encouraged to speak the word of God more courageously and fearlessly.

1:15 It is true that some preach Christ out of envy and rivalry, but others out of goodwill.

1:16 The latter do so in love, knowing that I am put here for the defense of the gospel.

1:17 The former preach Christ out of selfish ambition, not sincerely, supposing that they can stir up trouble for me while I am in chains.

1:18 But what does it matter? The important thing is that in every way, whether from false motives or true, Christ is preached. And because of this I rejoice. Yes, and I will continue to rejoice,

1:19 for I know that through your prayers and the help given by the Spirit of Jesus Christ, what has happened to me will turn out for my deliverance.

1:20 I eagerly expect and hope that I will in no way be ashamed, but will have sufficient courage so that now as always Christ will be exalted in my body, whether by life or by death.

1:21 For to me, to live is Christ and to die is gain.

1:22 If I am to go on living in the body, this will mean fruitful labor for me. Yet what shall I choose? I do not know!

1:23 I am torn between the two: I desire to depart and be with Christ, which is better by far,

1:24 but it is more necessary for you that I remain in the body.

1:25 Convinced of this, I know that I will remain, and I will continue with all of you for your progress and joy in the faith,

1:26 so that through my being with you again your joy in Christ Jesus will overflow on account of me.

1:27 Whatever happens, conduct yourselves in a manner worthy of the gospel of Christ. Then, whether I come and see you or only hear about you in my absence, I will know that you stand firm in one spirit, contending as one man for the faith of the gospel

1:28 without being frightened in any way by those who oppose you. This is a sign to them that they will be destroyed, but that you will be saved—and that by God.

1:29 For it has been granted to you on behalf of Christ not only to believe on him, but also to suffer for him,

1:30 since you are going through the same struggle you saw I had, and now hear that I still have.

Philippians 1:1

Paul and Timothy, servants of Christ
Jesus, To all the saints in Christ Jesus at Philippi, together with the overseers and deacons:

Philippians 1:2

Grace and peace to you from God
our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Philippians 1:3

I thank my God every time I remember you.

Philippians 1:4

In all my prayers for all of you,
I always pray with joy

Philippians 1:5

because of your partnership with the gospel from the first day until now,

Philippians 1:6

being confident of this, that he who began a good work in you will carry it on to completion until the day of Christ Jesus.

Philippians 1:7a

It is right for me to feel this way about all of you, since I have you in my heart.

Philippians 1:7b

For whether I am in chains or defending and confirming the gospel, all of you share in God's grace with me.

Philippians 1:8

God can testify how I long for all of you with the affection of Christ Jesus.

Philippians 1:9

And this is my prayer: that your love may abound more and more in knowledge and depth of insight,

Philippians 1:10

so that you may be able to discern what is best and may be pure and blameless until the day of Christ,

Philippians 1:11

filled with the fruit of righteousness that comes through Jesus Christ—to the glory and praise of God.

Philippians 1:12

Now I want you to know, brothers, that what has happened to me has really served to advance the gospel.

Philippians 1:13

As a result, it has become clear throughout the whole palace guard and to everyone else that I am in chains for Christ.

Philippians 1:14

Because of my chains, most of the brothers in the Lord have been encouraged to speak the word of God more courageously and fearlessly.

Philippians 1:15

It is true that some preach Christ out of envy and rivalry, but others out of goodwill.

Philippians 1:16

The latter do so in love, knowing that I am put here for the defense of the gospel.

Philippians 1:17

The former preach Christ out of selfish ambition, not sincerely, supposing that they can stir up trouble for me while I am in chains.

Philippians 1:18a

But what does it matter? The important thing is that in every way,
whether from false motives or true,
Christ is preached.

Philippians 1:18b

And because of this I rejoice. Yes, and I will continue to rejoice.

Philippians 1:19

For I know that through your prayers and the help given by the Spirit of Jesus Christ, what has happened to me will turn out for my deliverance.

Philippians 1:20a

I eagerly expect and hope that I will in no way be ashamed, but will have sufficient courage

Philippians 1:20b

so that now as always Christ will be exalted in my body, whether by life or by death.

Philippians 1:21

For to me, to live is Christ and to die is gain.

Philippians 1:22

If I am to go on living in the body,
this will mean fruitful labor for me.
Yet what shall I choose? I do not know!

Philippians 1:23

I am torn between the two: I desire to be with Christ, which is better by far,

Philippians 1:24

but it is more necessary for you that I remain in the body.

Philippians 1:25

Convinced of this, I know that I will remain, and I will continue with all of you for your progress and joy in the faith,

Philippians 1:26

so that through my being with you again your joy in Christ Jesus will overflow on account of me.

Philippians 1:27a

Whatever happens, conduct yourselves in a manner worthy of the gospel of Christ.

Philippians 1:27b

Then, whether I come and see you or only hear about you in my absence, I will know that you stand firm in the spirit, contending as one man for the faith of the gospel.
